

Enriching Jewish life

Rabbi

job description

About the Wellington Jewish Community Centre

The Wellington Jewish Community Centre enriches Jewish life for Jews of all backgrounds through religious services, educational opportunities, and social activities in a warm family atmosphere true to Jewish tradition.

Our orthodox congregation is one of Australasia's oldest – our first service was held in 1843 – and is affiliated to the United Synagogue (formerly known as the United Hebrew Congregations), headed by the Chief Rabbi of United Hebrew Congregations of Great Britain and the Commonwealth.

We practice Ashkenazi customs followed by the United Synagogue known as minhag Anglia.

Position

Rabbi, Wellington Jewish Community Centre.

Purpose

Establish, maintain, facilitate, and promote observance of the laws and customs of orthodox Judaism through the Wellington Jewish Community Centre and act as rav hamachshir for its kosher certification services.

Reports to

Chairperson, Wellington Jewish Community Centre.

Direct reports

None.
